

Deregulation is only better if it supports the needs of the community. That is why the latest business models support more decisions to be made at the bottom level. Therefore, I DISAGREE with the deregulation of Broadcast Media because more decisions are made from a distance. It goes against all the recent lessons businesses have learned.